2.7 Can I still apply if I have not yet received any offers from any universities?

Ideally, applicants should have already been offered a university place at at least one university. If you are still awaiting offers, please make that clear on the application form.

2.8 Can I apply if I am an asylum seeker or refugee living in a country outside of the UK?

Unfortunately, if you are a refugee or an asylum seeker living outside of the UK you are not able to apply for the scholarship.

Whilst the trust are sympathetic to the frustration of individuals in this position, and acknowledge the often 'forced' nature of their migration, the money available to the trust was given specifically to promote and encourage the education of young asylum seekers and refugees. We are, therefore, legally bound by these original aims, and cannot broaden out the scholarship eligibility to include those who have not claimed asylum in the UK.

2.11 I applied to the trust for a scholarship last year but was unsuccessful. Can I apply again this year?

Reapplications are possible from those who have previously been unsuccessful but whose circumstances have changed. Re-submitting an application does not guarantee that it will be successful.

2.14 Can I still apply for the scholarship supported by the Marks Family Charitable Trust if I have applied for other scholarships as well?

We actively encourage applicants to apply to as many sources of funding as possible. Securing alternative funding does not exclude you from applying, and will not negatively impact your application. Please note down on the application form if you have applied, or been successful in gaining, another scholarship.

Many universities offer scholarships for those who cannot access student finance on account of their immigration status. All of these have different names but they are often called Sanctuary or Equal Access scholarships. The Article 26 project works in partnership with universities to offer scholarships, which include a full tuition fee bursary and funding meeting some of the additional costs associated with studying. ## 4.6 How can I prepare for the interview?

A bit of preparation can go a really long way in making the interview process as smooth as possible. Some things to think about include;

Where and when:

If the interview is online - make sure you have a good internet connection, and a quiet space.

If the interview is in person, you should plan out any travel and accommodation as early as possible. It might be useful to print out a map of the interview location (as well as a Tube map), or save these details into your Smartphone. Try to arrive in good time. Have a contact number or email address just in case you're delayed.

Be ready for questions:

We want to get to know you better, and we use the interview to do this. You will not be asked any questions that are designed to 'trick' you. Instead, we may want to know what you are good at, what you like, and what your plans are. Think about why you want to study your course and what you enjoy most about your current studies. Some questions may be about what you have written on your application form. Other questions may be about your history, interests, and passions. You will also have an opportunity to ask any questions that you may have.

Practice:

It is a good idea to have a practice interview with a teacher, support worker, or family member.

4.7 I am feeling anxious about the interview, what can I do?

It is completely understandable if you feel anxious about being interviewed, especially if it is your first interview experience. The interviewers will know that you may be nervous and will take this into account when making their decision. Be assured that you will not be asked any questions that are designed to 'trick' you, instead they simply want to get to know you better and use the interview to do this.

4.8 Can you reimburse me for my travel costs to the interview?

The trust will reimburse reasonable travel costs for interviewees. You will need to submit your travel receipts on the day of your interview (or soon after). You should book your travel ticket in advance. If you need a family member to accompany you, you must inform the trust in advance. Travel costs for accompanying individuals will be at the discretion of the trust.

4.9 How long after my interview will I hear back?

We attempt to contact all candidates within two weeks of their interview with a decision.

5. Miscellaneous questions

5.1 What should I do if my immigration status - or any of my details - change during the course of the application process?

You must notify the Trust immediately if any of your circumstances change during the application process, in particular in respect to your immigration status. It is also important that you update us if you change your telephone contact number or email address during the application process.
